KROLIKOWSKI, DENNIS NAMED PARTNERS

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — We are proud to announce that Charles S. Krolikowski and Jeffrey M. Dennis have been elevated to partners. Krolikowski was previously of counsel and specializes in land use and eminent domain; Dennis moves up from an associate position in the firm's highly regarded litigation group.

“We are delighted with the elevation of these outstanding professionals,” said Tom Newmeyer, co-founding partner. “They have proven themselves to be invaluable members of our real estate practice, and we look forward to their continuing contributions to the firm and its clients.”

Krolikowski enjoys significant litigation and trial experience in the eminent domain, inverse condemnation and tort areas, including obtaining a substantial jury verdict in a case concerning the construction of portions of the I-5 Freeway in Anaheim. He obtained his Juris Doctor from the University of Southern California School of Law and was a member of a national moot court team. Krolikowski graduated from UC Davis with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics.

Jeffrey Dennis concentrates on construction and business litigation, including complex construction matters, and handles insurance coverage issues that arise out of construction claims. He also has experience in business litigation. He received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Southern California Law Center, where he participated in the honors moot court program. Dennis is a graduate of Occidental College with a Bachelor of Arts in the double majors of economics and diplomacy and world affairs.

Now in its 21st year, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP is considered the fifth-largest law firm based in Orange County. With three offices in California, there are now more than 50 lawyers providing litigation and transactional services in a wide range of business, real estate and financial services matters.
