

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oct. 5, 2009

Contact: Ann Romano

949/496-1076

annromano@bigplanet.com

NEWMAYER & DILLION LLP ADDS TRANSACTIONAL LAWYER

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — Statewide law firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP has added Craig C. Glorioso as a transactional attorney in its Newport Beach headquarters where he will focus on real estate, financing and business transactions.

Glorioso's experience includes representing individuals, corporations, real estate funds and REITs in all aspects of the purchase, sale, financing and maintenance of residential, commercial, retail, hospitality and industrial single property and multi-state portfolios.

"We welcome someone with Craig's experience to the firm," said Tom Newmeyer, co-founding partner. "His expertise will further enhance our capabilities to serve our clients' expanding needs."

Glorioso also advises clients in connection with originations, purchases, participations, workouts and restructurings of senior and subordinate mortgage and mezzanine debt, as well as counseling clients on the formation and maintenance of corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, offshore entities and hedge funds.

Glorioso earned his Juris Doctorate from the University of Miami School of Law and is a graduate of Ohio University with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science. He is admitted to the bar in California and Florida.

Now celebrating its 25th anniversary, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Walnut Creek and Newport Beach, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters. For additional information, contact Jeff Dennis at (949) 854-7000, or visit www.ndlf.com.

###