NEWMEYER & DILLION LLP ADDS 3 NEW LAWYERS

NEWPORT BEACH — Statewide business and real estate-law firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP is again adding to its roster of attorneys. Joining the firm at its Newport Beach headquarters are Susannah M. Eichele and Eric J. Rollins; Ivo G. Daniele has been hired in the firm's Northern California office in Walnut Creek.

“We welcome these outstanding attorneys to our team,” said Greg Dillion, co-founding partner. “Their expertise will further enhance the strength of our business and real estate capabilities.”

Ms. Eichele is an associate concentrating on real estate and business transactions and litigation, including Chinese drywall and various aspects of contract disputes. She received her Juris Doctor degree from Loyola Law School, and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from the University of California, Irvine, where she made the Dean's List. She is a member of the Orange County Women Lawyers Assn.

Rollins focuses on business, construction and real estate litigation. He received his Juris Doctor degree from Loyola Law School, where he was a member of the Dean's List and served as an editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review. While at Loyola, Rollins also received American Jurisprudence Awards in trial advocacy, appellate advocacy, and legal drafting. He graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Music in Music Business/Management from Berklee College of Music in Boston.

A construction litigation lawyer, Daniele has extensive experience representing contractors in both public and private works of improvement, and has also represented owners and contractors involving complex claims on large infrastructure projects such as bridges and roadways. Daniele graduated with a Juris Doctor degree from Vermont Law School, and during that time was a law clerk in the U.S. Attorney's Office, Civil - Asset and Forfeiture Division. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Hobart College, Geneva, New York.

Currently celebrating its 25th anniversary, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Walnut Creek and Newport Beach, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
