NEWMEYER & DILLION LLP ELECTS 3 NEW PARTNERS

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. —Business and real estate law firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP has elected James S. Hultz, J. Brian Morrow and Daniel S. Schneider as new partners in its highly regarded litigation group.

Hultz and Schneider are attorneys in the firm’s Newport Beach headquarters, while Morrow is the first to move from associate to partner in its Walnut Creek office.

“We are delighted to elevate these outstanding professionals to partner,” said Tom Newmeyer, co-founding partner. “They are highly skilled lawyers who will continue their strong contributions to the long-term growth and success of the firm.”

Hultz concentrates his practice on business disputes including construction, insurance and employment matters, enjoying extensive experience in complex construction and insurance litigation. Hultz received his Juris Doctor from the University of Southern California Law Center, and earned an undergraduate Bachelor of Science degree, cum laude, in Criminal Justice Administration from San Diego State University.

Schneider’s practice focuses on construction and general business litigation. He received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Miami School of Law, where he excelled in negotiation competitions with other law schools. A graduate of Brandeis University with a Bachelor of Arts degree, Schneider was named to the Dean’s List each year and was a Presidential Scholar.

Morrow’s practice encompasses complex construction law, real estate litigation, business litigation and insurance law. He earned his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Iowa College of Law, graduating with Special Honors with Distinction. Morrow holds both a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from the University of California at Davis, and a Master of Science degree in Civil Engineering with a Construction Management emphasis from California State University at San Jose.

Now celebrating its 25th anniversary, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Walnut Creek and Newport Beach, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
