NEWMEYER & DILLION LLP ELECTS NEW PARTNER

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. —Business and real estate law firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP has named Michael J. Studenka as a new partner in its highly regarded litigation group, based in Newport Beach.

Studenka specializes in construction litigation as well as labor and employment law. He primarily represents general contractors and developers in all aspects of construction dispute resolution, including extra work claims, delay claims, performance and payment bond claims, fee disputes, negligence claims, and mechanic's lien claims. Studenka also defends employers in matters relating to wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wage and hour complaints, and employee embezzlement.

“We are delighted to elevate Mike to partner,” said Greg Dillion, co-founding partner. “He will continue his strong contributions to the long-term growth and success of the firm.”

Prior to joining the firm, Studenka was a Judge Advocate in the United States Marine Corps. He served as a Marine for nearly ten years, where he was awarded the Defense Counsel of the Year Award. He is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Studenka received his Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego, and earned an undergraduate Bachelor of Arts degree, in both History (High Honors) and Government from the College of William & Mary.

Now celebrating its 26th anniversary, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Walnut Creek and Newport Beach, with more than 55 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters. For additional information, please visit www.ndlf.com.
