NEWMAYER & DILLION LLP ELECTS 3 NEW PARTNERS

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. —Business and real estate law-firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP has elected three new partners in its highly regarded litigation group, based in Newport Beach.

John E. Bowerbank, Ryan M. Manning and Leonard Polyakov specialize in business, real estate and construction litigation, while Manning and Polyakov also handle insurance litigation matters.

“We are delighted to elevate these outstanding professionals to partner,” said Greg Dillion, co-founding partner. “Each of these attorneys will continue his strong contributions to the long-term growth and success of the firm.”

Polyakov has extensive experience representing clients in complex business litigation, including trade secret disputes, intellectual property matters, unfair trade practices and business torts cases. He received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Southern California Law Center and earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of California, Los Angeles. A native of the former Soviet Union, Polyakov is fluent in Russian.

Prior to joining Newmeyer & Dillion, Manning was a judge advocate in the United States Marine Corps, serving as a senior prosecutor in the busiest trial section in the Department of Defense. He obtained his Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego. A graduate with distinction from San Diego State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Manning was a member of Pi Sigma Alpha, the political science national honor society.

Bowerbank earned his law degree from the University of Southern California. He also received his Bachelor of Arts with Honors from the University of California at Santa Barbara. Bowerbank recently served as an Assistant Deputy District Attorney with the Orange County District Attorney’s Office in the Trial Attorney Partnership (TAP)

Program. He has also written articles for several professional journals and trade magazines.

Now in its 24th year, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Newport Beach and Walnut Creek, and was named one of the “Top Workplaces for 2008” in an Orange County Register survey of employees. The firm has more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters. For additional information, contact Jeff Dennis at (949) 854-7000, or visit www.ndlf.com.
