NEWMAYER & DILLION LLP RETAINS FORMER STATE ASSEMBLYMAN AS OF COUNSEL

NEWPORT BEACH — Statewide business and real estate-law firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP has retained Van Tran as “of counsel” to help with the firm’s client development and business trade outreach issues. He will be focusing his practice on civil litigation, contracts, corporations, and administrative law.

“We welcome Van and look forward to utilizing his unique perspective and insights,” said Tom Newmeyer, co-founding partner. “He will be a great asset to our team.”

Tran served three terms in the California State Assembly, representing Central Orange County. He was also the Vice-Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary and was the first Vietnamese-American to serve in a state legislature in the United States. Tran has received numerous awards for his years of civic leadership and community service.

An experienced litigation and transactional lawyer, Tran brings over 16 years of experience. Before heading up to Sacramento, he advised and/or represented 900 clients while in private practice. As the owner of a successful private practice, he has proven to be a skilled legal administrator and business generator.

Tran graduated from Hamline University School of Law in Saint Paul, Minnesota, with a Master’s Degree in Public Administration and a Juris Doctorate. He also earned his Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science at the University of California, Irvine.

Currently celebrating its 26th anniversary, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Walnut Creek and Newport Beach, with more than 55 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
