NEWMAYER & DILLION ATTORNEY AGAIN LISTED ON NORCAL ‘SUPER LAWYERS®’ LIST

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. — Litigation Partner Alan H. Packer of the Walnut Creek office of Newmeyer & Dillion LLP has again been named to the list of Northern California “Super Lawyers®” for 2010, as published in the August issue of San Francisco magazine and in the companion Northern California Super Lawyers.

Packer has made the Super Lawyers list in every year he was eligible since joining the firm in 2007.

Super Lawyers is a list of the top five percent of attorneys in the area as chosen by their peers and through the independent research of Law & Politics, a Minneapolis-based trade publication.

“We are proud that Alan has been recognized among the best in his profession,” said Tom Newmeyer, co-founding partner of the business and real-estate firm. “This is particularly gratifying since the selections are made by other lawyers.”

Packer represents clients in a variety of matters, including risk management, insurance, mechanic’s liens, payment and performance bonds and such complex litigation issues as construction defect and product defect claims. He also lectures on such topics as mechanic’s liens, construction litigation, insurance, strategic risk management, and related matters. Most recently, he participated in PCBC 2010 seminars on distressed-asset risks and SB 800 issues. He is also an active member of the Legal Action Subcommittee of the California Building Industry Association.

Headquartered in Newport Beach, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP is now celebrating the fifth anniversary of its Walnut Creek office. The firm offers statewide legal services, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
