NEWMAYER & DILLION LLP HIRES THREE NEW ASSOCIATES

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — Business and real estate-law firm Newmeyer & Dillion LLP continues to grow, adding three new lawyers to its Newport Beach headquarters.

Joining the firm's highly regarded litigation practice are Uliana A. Kozeychuk, Leah K. McKechnie, and Stephen W. Nelson.

"We welcome these outstanding attorneys to our team," said Greg Dillion, co-pounding partner. "Their expertise will further enhance the strength of our litigation team."

Kozeychuk practices in business, construction and real estate litigation, including insurance law and land-use and eminent domain. She graduated from Loyola Law School, where she served as an Executive Research Editor for the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review and headed the Scott Moot Court Honors Board as the Chief Justice. Prior to attending Loyola Law School, Kozeychuk received her first law degree from Irkutsk State University School of Law in Russia in 2002.

McKechnie's practice is focused on business, construction and real estate litigation. She also received her Juris Doctorate from Loyola Law School, where she served as a Note and comment Editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review. McKechnie is a graduate of the University of California, Irvine, with a Bachelor of Arts cum laude.

Nelson specializes in business, construction and real estate litigation. He graduated from Boston University School of Law where he received his Juris Doctorate with a concentration in Business Organizations and Financial Law with honors. Nelson attended the University of California, Irvine, where he received his Bachelor's degree in Economics.
