SIX NEWMAYER & DILLION LLP PARTNERS NAMED TO 2008 ‘RISING STARS’

Firm’s Attorneys Recognized in Latest Surveys of Their Peers

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — Earning recognition by their peers, six partners from Newmeyer & Dillion LLP’s Newport Beach headquarters were named to the roster of 2008 Southern California Rising Stars, a compilation of the area’s up-and-coming attorneys from the Law & Politics magazine, publishers of Super Lawyers®.

All six were repeat honorees from 2007: Jeff Dennis and Shane Coons, members of the firm’s highly regarded litigation group; Chuck Krolikowski, an eminent domain specialist; construction litigation specialists Jay Freedman and Laura Watkins Ives, and Carol Sherman Zaist, a business and real estate litigator.

Rising Stars is compiled by Law & Politics magazine of Minneapolis to showcase the top 2-1/2% of lawyers in an area who are either 40 or under or have been practicing 10 or fewer years.

“We are proud that the potential of these outstanding attorneys has been recognized,” said Greg Dillion, co-founding partner of the business and real estate-law firm. “This is particularly gratifying since the selections were made by other lawyers.”

Now in its 23rd year, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Newport Beach and Walnut Creek, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
