SEVEN NEWMAYER & DILLION LLP PARTNERS NAMED TO 2010 'RISING STARS'

Firm's Attorneys Recognized in Latest Survey of Their Peers

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — Earning recognition from their peers, seven partners from Newmeyer & Dillion LLP's Newport Beach headquarters have been named to the roster of 2010 Southern California Rising Stars, a compilation of the area's up-and-coming attorneys from the Law & Politics magazine, publishers of Super Lawyers®.

Repeat honorees from 2009 are: partners Jeff Dennis, Jay Freedman, Carol Sherman Zaist and John Bowerbank, members of the firm's highly regarded litigation group, as well as eminent-domain/inverse condemnation specialist Chuck Krolkowski and Bonnie Roadarmel, an insurance expert. Making the list for the first time is partner Dan Schneider, whose practice focuses on construction and general business litigation.

Rising Stars is compiled by Minneapolis-based Law & Politics to showcase the top 2-½ percent of lawyers in an area who are either 40 or under or have been practicing 10 or fewer years.

“We applaud the selection of these outstanding attorneys as ‘Rising Stars’,” said Greg Dillion, co-founding partner of the business and real estate-law firm. “This is particularly gratifying since the selections are made by other lawyers.”

Now celebrating its 25th anniversary, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Newport Beach and Walnut Creek, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
