SIX NEWMEYER & DILLION LLP PARTNERS NAMED TO 2009 'RISING STARS'

Firm's Attorneys Recognized in Latest Survey of Their Peers

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — Earning recognition by their peers, six partners from Newmeyer & Dillion LLP's Newport Beach headquarters were named to the roster of 2009 Southern California Rising Stars, a compilation of the area's up-and-coming attorneys from the Law & Politics magazine, publishers of Super Lawyers®.

Repeat honorees from 2008 are: partners Jeff Dennis, Jay Freedman, and Carol Sherman Zaist, members of the firm's highly regarded litigation group, and eminent-domain/inverse condemnation specialist Chuck Krolkowski. Returning to the list is partner Bonnie T. Roadarmel, an insurance specialist, while John Bowerbank, a business litigation partner, made the list for the first time.

Rising Stars is compiled by Minneapolis-based Law & Politics to showcase the top 2-½ percent of lawyers in an area who are either 40 or under or have been practicing 10 or fewer years.

“We applaud the selection of these outstanding attorneys as ‘Rising Stars’,” said Tom Newmeyer, co-founding partner of the business and real estate-law firm. “This is particularly gratifying since the selections were made by other lawyers.”

Now in its 24th year, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP offers statewide legal services from offices in Newport Beach and Walnut Creek, with more than 50 lawyers handling a diverse scope of business, real estate and financial matters.
