EIGHT NEWMAYER & DILLION PARTNERS NAMED TO SUPER LAWYERS' LIST; DILLION RECOGNIZED AS OC "TOP 50"

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. — Earning recognition from their peers, eight attorneys from the Newport Beach headquarters of Newmeyer & Dillion LLP, a prominent business and real estate law firm, have been listed in the "Southern California Super Lawyers" fourth annual peer-review survey, published in the February 2007 issue of Los Angeles Magazine.

Making the list since it was originally published in 2004 were co-founding partners Greg Dillion, a real estate litigator who was again recognized as one of Orange County's "Top 50 Super Lawyers," and Tom Newmeyer, a business lawyer, as well as litigation partner John O'Hara. Also named were real estate-transactional partners Mike Cucchissi and Jane Samson, insurance and real estate litigation partner Reed Archambault, and construction litigation partners Joe Ferrentino (previously a "Rising Star") and Mark Himmelstein.

Southern California Super Lawyers is a compilation of the top 5 percent of attorneys in the area and is produced by Law & Politics, a Minneapolis based trade publication.

"We are proud that our attorneys were again recognized among the best in their profession," said Dillion. "This is particularly gratifying since the selections were made by other lawyers."

Super Lawyers lists the top attorneys in more than 60 practice areas, as chosen by their peers and through the independent research of Law & Politics. The list of 2007 Southern California Super Lawyers is based on surveys of more than 56,000 lawyers across Los Angeles and Orange counties. It is published annually in the February issues of Los Angeles Magazine and Southern California Super Lawyers. For more information, visit www.superlawyers.com.

Now in its 22nd year, Newmeyer & Dillion LLP is considered one of the largest law firms based in Orange County. With a second office in Walnut Creek, there are now more than 50 lawyers providing full-service in a wide range of business, real estate and financial services matters.
